The people of these villages are called "TURKA KASHI" meaning muslim stonecutters. These poor muslims are illiterate and know nothing about islam, they earn their livelihood by breaking stones in the mountains. Rural islamic center has appointed teachers in these villages to teach quraan and about islam in these villages since past 6 years.

We are thankful to AL-MANAR TRUST New Zealand for extending their support for this noble cause may ALLAH almighty grant you your family and children all your jayez wishes in this duniya and in aqirah. Our organisation rural islamic center has received from AL-MANAR TRUST New Zealand a sum of Rs 2,24,500/- (Indian). A total of 263 ramazan food packs were distributed on behalf of AL-MANAR TRUST.
